Essential Leadership Skills for New Managers

Develop your own leadership game plan – become a take-charge supervisor! Becoming an effective leader involves much more than just getting things done. Supervisors are faced with several challenges: increased complexity of work, lack of resources, lack of training to lead a team, and simply just stressed out from the additional responsibility.

This workshop will help you focus on those skills that you need as a leader to motivate and manage your team to success.

Workshop Objectives:

- Determine your leadership style
- Identify ways to modify your leadership style to improve employee effectiveness
- Discuss what motivates you and your employees
- Use feedback to motivate your employees to perform
- Give constructive feedback and coach employees to improve performance
- Identify obstacles to employee performance

Target Audience:

- New Managers, Front-Line Supervisors, and Project Leaders

Course Length:

- 3 - 4 days
